RICHARD WYLER INTERVIEW ON BBC 2 RADIO

In a twenty minute interview at the BBC, the founder of People Can Change, Richard Wyler from Virginia USA, explains what PCC does and in what way he chooses to do other things with same-sex attractions than adopt the political 'gay' label. He does not want some sexual feelings to totally define who he is as a personal identity or to define a lifestyle: "I am not going to make the life choices about who I love based on political correctness".

Click here to hear the audio file.